6. REPORT OF COMMITTEES none

7. GENERAL AND UNFINISHED BUSINESS none

8. NEW AND SPECIAL BUSINESS

Chairman Daryl LeHew explained that the main reason for our meeting was to discuss the committee's wishes about the vacant School Board and Council seat (Ward 3).

Mike Davies placed the name of Pam Price in nomination for the school board vacancy. Nominations were closed. A motion was made by Daryl LeHew, seconded by Frank Linn, to enter Pam Price's name for the school board. A discussion of her qualifications, as well as an introduction to Pam followed. She spoke on her own behalf and expressed her interest in the position. Motion carried unanimously.

Rachelle Reid placed the name of Stephen Drabick in nomination for the Ward 3 Council vacancy. Nominations were closed. A motion was made by Robert Long, seconded by Barbara Layne's proxy Robert Long, to enter Stephen Drabick's name for the council seat. Vote tally 2-0. (Subsequent phone confirmation by the Chairman for a vote by Mark Templeton. Motion carried unanimously.)

A mandatory letter that contained the motions was drafted by Daryl LeHew and Julie Wilt which was subsequently emailed to Mike Davies to be submitted to the School Board, Dauphin County Republican Committee Chairman Bob Dick and head of the County Election Board, Steve Chiavetti.

Events: 10/13/05 - Frank Linn announced that the LDARC was hosting a cocktail party for Judge Clark's retention, with a reception at Commonwealth Caterer's on October 13, 2005. The tickets are $50 with a plan that after the expenses are paid, the profit goes into our treasury. Mike Musser is handling the event.

09/24/05 - 2nd Annual Carnevale Italiano at Commonwealth Caterer's for Dauphin County Commissioners Jeff Haste and Nick DiFrancesco from 6-9. Individual tickets are $50.
